Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who should attend the Academy?

Students in grades 5-8 who show passion and aptitude in the visual arts should attend.

2. What is the difference between the Academy and private art lessons?

There are several differences. Your child will find having other students of like mind and ability extremely exciting and inspiring as they work in an atmosphere of collaborative learning. Our student artists will be assured of learning that is within the recognized structure of the North Carolina Standard Course of Study (curriculum) for the visual arts. You can be certain that your child will be challenged in a safe environment.

3. What things are covered in the classes?

A variety of topics and issues in the visual arts are covered. A selection of visually stimulating problems and media will be presented.

4. What are the benefits of being in the Academy?

Your child benefits from the other students, professional art educators, and visiting artists. Our student artists automatically become a part of the Greenville Museum of Art community which gives them access to Museum art exhibitions, more opportunities for classes and interactions with art professionals. Artwork by each student is also featured in an exhibit in June at the Greenville Museum of Art.

5. Who are the instructors?

Our instructors are North Carolina certified and licensed art educators committed to mentoring your child in the visual arts learning process.

6. When does the Academy meet?

The Academy is divided into two, 8-week semesters. Semesters consist of 16 meetings per term. Class times are from 4:30 pm – 6:00 pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

7. Where does the Academy meet?

The Academy meets at the Greenville Museum of Art Center for Art Education. This building is located directly next door to the Museum.

8. How much does it cost?

The tuition is $325.00 for new students. The tuition for returning students is $275.00.

10. What supplies do I have to purchase?

None! The Academy supplies your child with all the material for the semester classes including a sketchbook.

11. Are there outside requirements?

There may be 'homework' however it will be limited in scope.

12. Is transportation offered?

Sorry, no. Students must arrange their own transportation.

13. Are there scholarships available?

Scholarship availability is very limited. If you would like information on scholarships please contact info@gmoa.org.
